human policy—a policy which the noble but personable McClellan strenuously advised three years ago in a letter to the President and for which he deserves a Nation's gratitude—had been persisted in, we believe, as sincerely as we do in any thing that is yet to transpire, that the rebellion today would be smothered "the things that were" but an even less the Executive head of the Nation was tempted from his propriety —a thing to do which he was unwarily and he yielded to their insinuation, incident and fatal crisis for a policy in regard to the negro slave of the Constitution and of justice; and the result was—the disruption of that unity of sentiment that had characterized the loyal States, and the almost total obliteration of the historic strong Union sentiment that calculated in the rebellious States. Now, if this action (and impartial history will be compelled to record it) does not a fearful responsibility rest upon those who have resisted the power entrusted to them, and ought not to be so far from their steps as speech as possible and return again to the path which they have unwisely abandoned?

But they will not do it. They have taken the false step, and they are either so blind as not to see, or so perverse as not to admit that it will inevitably lead to the prologues of the war, if indeed it ever produces its intended result.

What, then, is the duty of the people, when Government thus seizes, and whose interference for a fall or a rise so imperiously connected with the preservation of the Union and the Constitution? It is to communicate at once a vigorous, earnest and never ceasing opposition to the policy of power this purpose, and to supply its place with those who will look to the Constitution and its guide of their conduct, and following all

Gen. Burbridge and staff left this city on Wednesday last for Louisville.

Gen. Nelson, who commands the eastern district of Kentucky, is at present in the city, in the discharge of the duties of his position. Gen. Hobson is a Kentuckian, and will be remembered as the commander of the expedition which pursued Morgan through Indiana and Ohio, finally capturing him and his command.

Major General Stoneman arrived at Paris on Tuesday last, reviewed the troops, and assumed command of the forces stationed in that vicinity. Gen. Sturgis, it is said, goes to Tennessee.

We call attention to the advertisement of John W. Combs, Esq., Sheriff of Woodford county, in our paper this morning.

The stock to be sold by him is all thoroughbred, and dealers in this kind of stock will do well to make a note of this sale.

An advertisement of H. C. Pinder, Esq., Cashier Northern Bank at Louisville, in reference to the recent issue of 10 40

U. S. bonds, will be found in our paper this morning. Persons desiring to make investments in these bonds will do well to call upon Mr. Pinder.

Senator Furness.—We have had the opportunity of testing the flour manufactured for Mr. Andrew Caldwell, and cheerfully recommend it to our friends as a superior article.

Mr. Caldwell has opened a flour store on Upper street, opposite the Melodion, where families can be at all times supplied in any quantity desired. He keeps a first rate article, and it will be so pronounced by all who give it a trial.

The effort to expel Mr. Long, of Ohio, from the House failed; and a vote of censure was passed by a vote of 80 for to 70 against it. A motion that the Speaker should read the vote of censure to Long in the House failed by two majority. Our Representative, Mr. Clay, voted against the resolution of censure, as he had done against the resolution to expel Mr. Harris, of Maryland, for condoning Mr. Long's speech.

Warner B. Scott, of Carroll county,

Ky., (formerly of Woodford), was arrested on Tuesday, and taken to Covington for refusing to furnish the names of his slaves to the circulating office.

DEATH OF AN IMPORTANT MAN BY MR

SEWARD.—Mr. Seward, Secretary of State, has addressed a letter to Mr. Washburn, chairman of the House select committee on emigration, recommending the passage of a bill to provide for the emigration of the colored people of the United States.

The bill is now in the hands of the committee, and will be reported in a few days.

FINE IRISH POTATOES.—Two varieties of Irish potatoes—the Prince Albert and Peach Blow—the finest specimens we have ever seen in the potato line, were laid upon our table the other day by Mr. T. J. Zimmerman. The seed, we understand, were of Michigan growth.

THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.—The Washington Constitutional Union, of Monday, says: "An order has been issued in the Army of the Potomac which indicates early action. All private property is ordered to the rear. All citizens, with a few exceptions, are forbidden to remain with the army after the 15th inst. No more furloughs and leaves of absence are to be granted except in extreme cases."

A dispatch from Washington, of the 12th, says: "It is reported by good authority that Gen. Lee has ordered all his officers to send their baggage to Richmond before the 9th, (Saturday last) as after that date the road will be used in bringing up reinforcements."

All the indications now are that a great battle on the Potomac is not far distant.

The Washington Constitutional Union, of the 9th ult., says: "The rejection of the nominations of Generals Schofield and Gilmore as Major Generals by the United States Senate, causes considerable feeling in certain military and political circles. The failure at Charleston was placed entirely upon Gen. Gilmore's shoulders by certain Senators." We think this hardly fair. If military movements are attended with success the Administration takes to itself the glory; but if they fail the officers are held up to public execration.

Warner B. Scott, of Carroll county,

the circulating office.
